The median cumulative amount of debt for all Title IV students including private, institutional, and Federal student debt for students who received Title IV aid at any point for attendance in the program is $23,625. However, it should be noted that “dependent” students can borrow up to $19,500 Direct Loan debt, and “independent” students can borrow up to $31,500 in Direct Loan debt to complete the program. As for other type of student loans, it is very rare for any student to borrow a private loan, and no students graduate with an Ailey student loan as the School does not offers these.

Programs of The Ailey School are exempt from licensure pursuant to Section 5001 (2) (f) of New York State Education Law.
