

THE AILEY SCHOOL

SPONSOR'S AFFIDAVIT OF FREE ROOM AND BOARD AND PROOF OF FINANCIAL CAPABILITY

WHAT DOES THIS AFFIDAVIT MEAN?

By completing this affidavit, you are swearing to the U.S. government that this student will live with you free of any charge for room and food for every year he or she is studying and living in the U.S. (The student cannot be required to provide you with any services such as, babysitting, cleaning, etc., in exchange for the room and board, as that is considered 'employment'.) You are also proving that you are the person who owns or rents the property and can afford the support you are promising with the documents you have attached.

Before signing it, you must understand that you are making a financial commitment to the student that should not be broken. Sponsors who fail to provide the promised support force students to drop out of school and cause pain and suffering. Do not expect that the student will be able to help support the costs through employment. Employment is strictly controlled by the Immigration Service and very limited.

HOW TO COMPLETE THIS FORM:

- Fill this form out completely in English.
- Attach the documentary evidence of support as explained below.
- Sign and date the affidavit
- Prove that you are financially capable of providing this support for every year of the student's program by attaching all the documents listed below. Documents must be: photocopies or faxes; current (less than two months old); in English, and notarized. Your support will not be considered if any documents are missing.

- Pay stubs for last six months, or
- Bank/investment statements for the last six months
- Bank Statement in your name only. This should be a monthly statement of balances and deposits.

(If another person's name appears on your bank statement, that person must complete a separate affidavit or submit a notarized statement permitting those funds to be considered as financial support for the student.)

2. Photocopy of your deed, lease, current rent receipts, or current phone bill

This is to prove that you are the person who owns or rents the property and that you have legal occupancy of the premises
