

THE AILEY STUDIOS RULES & REGULATIONS:

- No individuals are allowed to be in the studios without a confirmed reservation on the schedule.
- End reservation on time and exit quickly so that the next reservation can begin as scheduled.
- If the previous class or rental is running over, please DO NOT handle it yourself. Please call Studio Management from any courtesy phone at x8100 and have them address.
- No climbing on permanent wall barres or pianos allowed.
- Do not climb on wall mounted barres, movable barres, window frames, pianos or other furniture.
- Do not move portable Audio-Visual rigs, rolling sound systems, or pianos. Call Studio Management.
- Food and beverages are not permitted, other than water in a non-glass bottle.
- Access to the building is permitted 30 minutes prior to your reservation; no exceptions.
- Rosin, SlipNoMor, baby powder, and any other skid/anti-skid agents are not permitted in the building. Subject to fines laid out in rental agreement and posted in studios.
- When renting the Ailey Studios for showings, events, auditions, APAP, or meetings, you may be asked to provide a certificate of insurance.
- No changing in bathrooms, stalls, lobbies, or stairwells - period. Use Locker Rooms on the Lower Level for changing clothes.
- Locker rooms and studios close 30 minutes after the last class of the day.
- No dancing in black soled shoes on studio floors. If your shoes are leaving marks, remove them.
- No dancing in Stilettos on any Marley floor.
- No tape on floors without prior permission from Director of Studio and Theater Operations.
- No excessively loud music.
- Photo or video capture is not allowed without a signed photo restriction or location agreement with Studio Operations.
- For Security and Ventilation/Air Conditioning purposes, all studio doors must remain CLOSED during rentals